

They're all in this together

The Queen

"Instructing people to stay at home, and closing schools and businesses, is not something any Prime Minister would ever want to do — but it was absolutely necessary to save lives and protect the NHS."

—Queen's Speech, 11 May 2021

Keir Starmer

"...a national lockdown in place in the next 24 hours. The prime minister is hinting at it, but he's not doing it. And we can't afford that delay again."

—Guardian, 3 January 2021

Boris Johnson

"I urge you at this moment of national emergency to stay at home, protect our NHS and save lives."

—23 March 2020

Young Communist League

"Britain's communists are calling for: Continuing a full Britain-wide lockdown until new cases in the community have been reduced close to zero."

—Young Communist League statement, 18 January 2021

Dave Ward (CWU)

"Despite the fact that our members have overwhelmingly voted for industrial action.... as the Coronavirus crisis deepens, the need for the union and the company to work together is of paramount importance, and so we have made a proposal to the company based on putting the national interest first."

—Mirror, 17 March 2020

Jeremy Corbyn

"The prime minister is right to call for people to stay at home, protect our NHS and save lives."

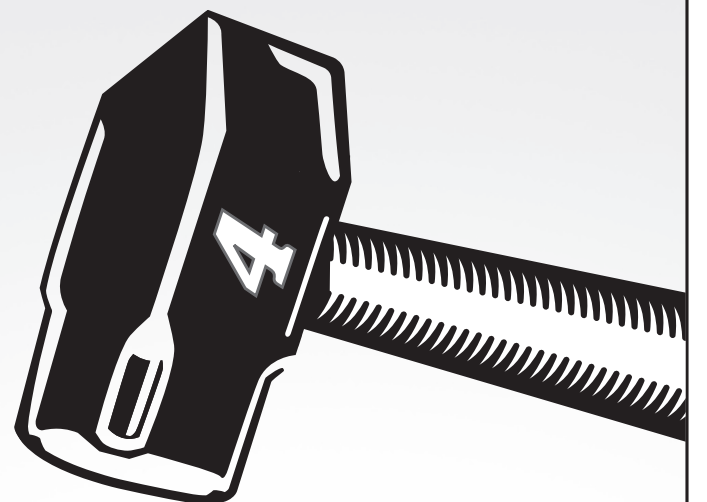

—Guardian, 23 March 2020

Revolutionary Communist Group

"We continue to demand a Zero Covid maximum suppression strategy and a transparent, urgent public inquiry into the whole shambolic handling of the pandemic, now and not in 2022."

—Fight racism! Fight imperialism!, June/July 2021

Socialist Appeal

"It is all the more important not to end the current lockdown early."

—Socialist Appeal, 24 February 2021

Socialist Party

"Democratic trade union oversight over any government or private sector emergency measures taken to contain the virus and its effects, such as restrictions on public assemblies or strikes...."
